GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE October 13, 2024 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, “At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions” (Mark 10:22). The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, “mine.” At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, “Lord, all I have is yours.” And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.

— Father John Muir

The Importance of World Mission Sunday Why World Mission Sunday Matters World Mission Sunday, observed on October 20th this year, is not just another Sunday; it is a powerful reminder of our call to be missionaries. The collection taken up on this day is unique as it is mandated by the Code of Canon Law and is essential for the survival and growth of the Church in mission territories. These funds support the pastoral and evangelizing work of the Church, including building churches, providing healthcare and education, and training future priests and religious. In places where resources are scarce, your generosity makes a profound difference. As we reflect on the theme "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," let us remember that our participation and support help invite countless souls to the feast of God's love.

Friends of St. Issac Jogues Gathering

On Saturday October 19 we celebrate St. Issac Jogues and Companions. This year marks the 20th Anniversary of the closing of St. Issac Jogues Church in Fleming and assimilation of that community into other parishes. If you have an interest in the heroic life of St. Issac Jogues and/or were connected in some way with the parish in Fleming please come to St. Francis for Mass at 9:00 AM followed by recitation of the Rosary and friends gathering in Nacca Hall. Any questions please contact Dcn. Dennis by email Dennis.Donahue@dor.org or Text/VM 315-406-1538.

Prayer of Reliance on God

Oh Lord, I entrust today’s challenges, fears, and uncertainties to You. I don’t know how I will do them. I don’t know that I can. But I know that You fill the gaps in my ability at every turn.
And so, today, I turn to You again.
Amen.

Boy Scout Troop 21 meets at Owasco Fire Department #1 every Thursday night at 7:00pm. All boys ages 11 years and older are welcome to come and check us out.

October is celebrated as the month of the Rosary.

Today, we can take a few minutes to review five reasons for praying the Rosary:

Praying the Rosary gives us piece of mind

When we pray the Rosary, we share our intentions with God. We let go of things that are troubling us and put our trust in God. We are joined by the Blessed Virgin Mary who prays with us and shares our intentions.

Praying the Rosary increases our love for Jesus

As we pray the mysteries of the Rosary we reflect on Jesus' life and his love for us. We follow Jesus as he came to earth, suffered and died for us.

Praying the Rosary for peace accepts Mary's request

Mary appeared to the children in Fatima and asked them to pray the Rosary every day for peace in the world. As we pray the Rosary, we are honoring her request.

Praying the Rosary helps us understand the will of God

When we pray the rosary for a specific intention, we put trust in the Lord to guide and help us know what to do.

"God helps us to understand His will in our lives in more than one way:

He guides us when we have a specific question, intention, or situation we are praying for.

He guides us by working with us to change our hearts to be more in tune with His own.

He helps us to be more aware of Him in our lives.

He helps us to understand Him better." <https://blessedcatholicmom.com/benefits-of-praying-the-rosary/>

Praying the Rosary can help us to focus on God instead of ourselves

As we pray, we meditate on Jesus' life, events and focus on him. The Rosary is a prayer of adoration and recognition. We focus on what God has done for us, his love of us and our salvation. We look at our lives from a different perspective.

In the remaining days of October, take a few minutes and honor our Lord by using the Rosary and praying.

God Bless,
